10.4. FAQs on Performance Reviews

Q1: What is the purpose of a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)? A1: A PIP is a constructive tool designed to help employees who are not meeting performance expectations. It provides clear goals, support, and a timeline for improvement, aiming to help the employee succeed in their role.

Q2: How often are performance reviews conducted? A2: Formal performance reviews are conducted annually. Additionally, mid-year check-ins and informal feedback sessions are encouraged throughout the year.

Q3: Can I provide feedback on my manager during the review process? A3: Yes, the school encourages a 360-degree feedback approach. There are mechanisms, such as anonymous surveys or direct feedback channels to HR, where employees can provide feedback on their managers.

Q4: What happens if an employee consistently fails to meet performance expectations? A4: If an employee consistently fails to meet performance expectations despite a PIP and adequate support, the school may consider further actions, which could include reassignment, demotion, or termination, in accordance with school policy and labor laws.

11. Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct at ABC International School, Powai, establishes the ethical standards, professional behavior, and values expected from all employees. It ensures a respectful, safe, and productive environment for students, staff, and the wider school community.

11.1. Ethical Standards and Professionalism

All employees are expected to uphold the highest standards of ethics and professionalism.

Principle	Description
Integrity	Act with honesty, transparency, and fairness in all dealings.

Principle	Description
Respect	Treat all individuals (students, parents, colleagues) with dignity and respect, regardless of background.
Responsibility	Be accountable for actions and decisions, and fulfill duties diligently.
Confidentiality	Protect sensitive information related to students, staff, and school operations.
Professional Competence	Maintain and enhance professional knowledge and skills.

11.2. Workplace Behavior and Harassment Policy

The school is committed to providing a workplace free from harassment and discrimination.

Behavior	Description	Policy
Harassment	Any unwelcome conduct (verbal, physical, visual) that creates a hostile environment	Zero Tolerance
Discrimination	Unfair treatment based on protected characteristics (gender, caste, religion)	Prohibited
Bullying	Repeated aggressive behavior intended to harm or intimidate	Zero Tolerance
Conflict of Interest	Avoid situations where personal interests conflict with school interests	Disclosure Required

Reporting Mechanism for Harassment/Discrimination: - Any employee who experiences or witnesses harassment or discrimination should immediately report it to their immediate supervisor, the HR Department, or the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). - All complaints will be investigated promptly, confidentially, and impartially.

11.3. Confidentiality and Data Protection

Employees have access to sensitive information and are expected to maintain strict confidentiality.

Data Type	Handling Protocol
Student Records	Access strictly on a need-to-know basis, never share externally
Staff Information	Confidential, only accessible by HR and authorized management
School Financials	Restricted access, never disclose to unauthorized parties
Curriculum/Pedagogy	Proprietary information, not to be shared with competitors

11.4. FAQs on Code of Conduct

Q1: What are the consequences of violating the Code of Conduct? A1: Violations of the Code of Conduct can lead to disciplinary action, ranging from verbal warnings to termination of employment, depending on the severity and nature of the offense.

Q2: Is the Code of Conduct applicable outside school hours? A2: Yes, employees are expected to uphold the school's values and professional standards even outside school hours, especially in interactions that may reflect upon the school's reputation.

Q3: How can I report a breach of confidentiality? A3: Any suspected breach of confidentiality should be reported immediately to the HR Department or the Principal. The school will investigate the matter discreetly.

Q4: What is the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)? A4: The ICC is a committee formed as per the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, to address complaints of sexual harassment within the workplace. Its members are trained to handle such matters with sensitivity and confidentiality.

12. Exit Clearance Forms

Exit clearance forms are part of the formal process when an employee leaves ABC International School, Powai. This process ensures a smooth transition, proper handover of responsibilities, and final settlement of dues.

12.1. Resignation Process

Employees wishing to resign must follow a formal process.

Steps for Resignation: 1. Submit Resignation Letter: A formal resignation letter, stating the last working day, must be submitted to the immediate supervisor and HR Department. 2. Serve Notice Period: Employees are required to serve the stipulated notice period (3 months for teaching staff, 1 month for non-teaching staff) as per their appointment letter. 3. Handover: Complete all pending tasks and hand over responsibilities, documents, and school property to the designated person.

12.2. Exit Interview Procedure

An exit interview is conducted to gather feedback from the departing employee, which helps the school improve its policies and work environment.

Aspect	Details
Purpose	Understand reasons for leaving, gather feedback on work environment, management, policies
Conducted By	HR Department
Format	Confidential, structured interview

Aspect	Details
Feedback Usage	Used for internal analysis and continuous improvement, not for individual punitive action

12.3. Final Settlement and Relieving Letter

Upon successful completion of the exit formalities, the employee receives their final settlement and a relieving letter.

Document	Description	Issuance
Relieving Letter	Official document confirming cessation of employment	Issued on last working day
Experience Certificate	Details of employment period and designation	Issued on last working day
Full & Final Settlement	Payment of pending salary, leave encashment, gratuity, PF	Within 30-45 days of last working day
Form 16	Tax Deduction Certificate	Annually, by June of next financial year

12.4. FAQs on Exit Clearance

Q1: Can I be relieved before my notice period ends? A1: Early relieving is at the sole discretion of the school management and is typically granted only in exceptional circumstances. It may involve a payment in lieu of the unserved notice period.

Q2: What documents will I receive upon leaving the school? A2: You will receive a Relieving Letter, Experience Certificate, and your Full & Final Settlement statement. Form 16 will be issued annually.

Q3: Is an exit interview mandatory? A3: While highly encouraged, an exit interview is not mandatory. However, your feedback is valuable for the school's continuous improvement.

Q4: How long does it take to receive the full and final settlement? A4: The full and final settlement is typically processed and disbursed within 30-45 days from your last working day, provided all clearances are completed.

13. Detailed Operational Workflows and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) for HR

To ensure consistency and compliance across all HR functions, the following Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) are strictly adhered to by the HR Department.

13.1. SOP for Recruitment and Selection

Objective: To ensure a fair, efficient, and compliant process for attracting, evaluating, and hiring qualified candidates.

Procedure: 1. Manpower Requisition: Department Head submits a Manpower Requisition Form (MRF) to HR, detailing the role, responsibilities, and required qualifications. Principal approves the MRF. 2. Job Analysis & JD Creation: HR reviews the MRF, conducts a job analysis, and drafts/updates the Job Description (JD). 3. Sourcing Candidates: HR advertises the vacancy on appropriate platforms (school website, job portals, professional networks). 4. Application Screening: HR screens applications against the JD criteria, shortlists candidates, and conducts initial telephonic interviews. 5. Assessment/Interview Scheduling: HR coordinates with Department Heads and the Principal to schedule written tests, demo lessons, and multiple rounds of interviews. 6. Candidate Evaluation: Interview panel members evaluate candidates using standardized scorecards. 7. Reference Checks: HR conducts professional reference checks for shortlisted candidates. 8. Offer Generation: HR prepares the offer letter, including compensation and terms, for Principal's approval. 9. Offer Extension & Negotiation: HR extends the offer to the selected candidate and manages any negotiations. 10. Background Verification: Upon offer acceptance, HR initiates comprehensive background checks through a third-party agency. 11. Onboarding Coordination: HR prepares the joining kit, coordinates IT setup, and schedules the induction program.

13.2. SOP for Performance Appraisal Management

Objective: To facilitate a structured, objective, and developmental performance appraisal process for all employees.

Procedure: 1. Annual Planning: HR communicates the appraisal cycle timeline and guidelines to all employees and managers in April. 2. Goal Setting: Employees and their managers collaboratively set SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound) goals for the upcoming academic year. Goals are documented in the HR portal. 3. Mid-Year Review: In October/November, managers conduct informal check-ins with their team members to review progress against goals and provide constructive feedback. Any necessary adjustments to goals are made. 4. Self-Appraisal: In February, employees complete their self-appraisal forms, reflecting on their achievements, challenges, and development needs. 5. Manager Appraisal: In March, managers complete appraisal forms for their direct reports, evaluating performance against goals and core competencies, and providing detailed feedback. 6. Appraisal Discussion: Managers conduct one-on-one appraisal discussions with their team members to review the self-appraisal and manager appraisal, discuss strengths, areas for development, and future goals. 7. Finalization & Approval: Both employee and manager sign the appraisal form. The form is then submitted to the Principal for final review and approval. HR archives the final appraisal documents. 8. Development Planning: Based on appraisal outcomes, individual development plans (IDPs) are created, outlining training, mentoring, or other support required.

13.3. SOP for Employee Grievance Redressal

Objective: To provide a fair, transparent, and timely mechanism for addressing employee grievances, fostering a positive and harmonious work environment.

Procedure: 1. Informal Resolution: Employees are encouraged to first discuss their grievance with their immediate supervisor to seek an informal resolution. 2. Formal Complaint (Level 1): If informal resolution is not possible or satisfactory, the employee submits a written grievance to the HR Department within 7 working days of the incident or awareness. 3. Investigation (Level 1): HR acknowledges the complaint within 2 working days and initiates an investigation, gathering facts, interviewing relevant parties, and reviewing documents. This is completed within 7 working days. 4. Resolution (Level 1): HR, in consultation with the immediate supervisor, proposes a resolution. The employee is informed of the decision within 3 working days of investigation completion. 5. Appeal (Level 2): If the employee is not satisfied with the Level 1 resolution, they can appeal to the Principal within 5 working days. 6. Investigation (Level 2): The Principal reviews the case, may conduct further investigation, and provides a final decision within 10 working days. 7.

Documentation: All grievances, investigations, and resolutions are meticulously documented and kept confidential by HR.

15. Extended FAQ Knowledge Base for Chatbot (HR Specific)

This section contains a vast repository of frequently asked questions, categorized by topic, designed to train the chatbot to handle complex, multi-part queries from employees and management.

15.1. Recruitment and Onboarding (Advanced Queries)

Q: What is the process for internal job postings and promotions? A: Internal job postings are first circulated within the school via email and the HR portal. Employees interested in internal mobility or promotions should apply through the specified process. Selection is based on merit, performance history, and suitability for the new role, following a similar interview process as external recruitment.

Q: Can a candidate who was not selected reapply for a similar position in the future? A: Yes, candidates who were not selected are welcome to reapply after a period of 6 months, especially if they have gained additional experience or qualifications relevant to the role. We encourage continuous professional growth.

Q: What kind of induction training is provided to new teachers? A: New teachers undergo a comprehensive induction program that includes an orientation to the school's philosophy, curriculum, policies, and procedures. They are also assigned a mentor teacher, receive training on the school's learning management system, and participate in workshops on classroom management and pedagogical best practices.

15.2. Compensation and Benefits (Advanced Queries)

Q: How are annual salary increments determined? A: Annual salary increments are determined based on a combination of factors including individual performance appraisal ratings, market benchmarks, and the school's financial performance. The HR Department and Principal review these factors annually.

Q: What is the process for claiming medical reimbursement? A: Employees can claim medical reimbursement for eligible expenses by submitting the original bills and a completed medical reimbursement form to the HR Department. Claims are processed monthly, and reimbursement is made with the next salary cycle, subject to policy limits.

Q3: Does the school provide any housing allowance or accommodation for out-station employees?
A3: While the school does not provide direct housing, House Rent Allowance (HRA) is a component of the salary structure. For out-station employees, HR can provide assistance with finding suitable rental accommodation options in the vicinity of the school.

15.3. Leave and Attendance (Advanced Queries)

Q: What is the policy for extended leave requests, such as for higher studies or sabbatical? A: Extended leave requests, such as for higher studies or sabbatical, are considered as Leave Without Pay (LWP) and require prior written approval from the Principal and HR. Such requests are reviewed on a case-by-case basis, considering the employee's tenure, performance, and the operational needs of the school. A minimum of 6 months' notice is typically required.

Q2: How is attendance recorded for staff members who are on official duty outside the school campus? A2: Staff members on official duty (e.g., field trips, workshops, external examinations) are required to inform their immediate supervisor and HR in advance. Their attendance will be marked as 'On Duty' in the system, and no leave deduction will be made.

Q3: Can I apply for leave during examination periods? A3: Leave during critical periods such as examinations, admissions, or annual events is generally discouraged and will only be approved in cases of extreme emergency, as it significantly impacts school operations.

15.4. Performance Management and Development (Advanced Queries)

Q: What resources are available for professional development? A: The school actively supports professional development through various initiatives, including internal workshops, external training programs, conferences, and online courses. Employees can discuss their development needs with their managers during appraisal reviews, and HR can provide information on available resources and funding.

Q2: How does the school handle underperformance? A2: Underperformance is addressed constructively. Initially, the manager provides feedback and support. If performance does not improve, a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) is initiated, with clear goals and resources. Continuous underperformance may lead to further disciplinary action as per policy.

Q3: Is there a mentorship program for new teachers? A3: Yes, all new teachers are assigned an experienced mentor teacher who provides guidance, support, and feedback during their first year at the school. This program aims to facilitate smooth integration and professional growth.

15.5. Employee Relations and Conduct (Advanced Queries)

Q: What is the process for resolving conflicts between colleagues? A: Employees are encouraged to first attempt to resolve minor conflicts amicably. If unresolved, they should approach their immediate supervisor or the HR Department. HR will facilitate mediation or initiate a formal grievance process if necessary, ensuring a fair resolution.

Q2: What are the guidelines for using social media as a school employee? A2: Employees are expected to exercise discretion and professionalism when using social media. Content that could negatively impact the school's reputation, disclose confidential information, or violate the Code of Conduct is strictly prohibited. A detailed Social Media Policy is available with HR.

Q3: How does the school ensure a safe working environment for female employees? A3: The school is committed to providing a safe working environment for all employees. We have a zero-tolerance policy for sexual harassment, an active Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) to address such issues, and ensure compliance with all relevant laws for women's safety in the workplace.
